

JUNIOR LEAGUE OF CORPUS CHRISTI, INC.®
Women building better communities

Media Advisory
January 29, 2010

MEDIA CONTACT: Melissa Goonan, 361.813-6409; jlcc_pr@yahoo.com

Festival of Fairy Tales Encourages Children's Imagination to Take Flight

- WHAT: Junior League of Corpus Christi's Festival of Fairy Tales
- WHY: Annual fundraiser teaches children about books and the importance of reading and using your imagination.
- WHO: CCISD Superintendent Scott Elliff and author Katherine Childers reading to children; and Students from Mary Carroll High School's Drama Dept. dressed as story book characters; children participating in various activities.
- WHEN: Saturday, Jan. 30 from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.
- WHERE: American Bank Convention Center

The annual Festival of Fairy Tales will let children's imagination take flight as they explore the wonderful world of books on Saturday, Jan. 30, 2010 at the American Bank Convention Center from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Children can come dressed as their favorite story character and enter a world of games and activities that explore classic children's books. Admission includes lunch and a festival bag with a book and activities. Tickets are $12 per child. Adults accompanying children are free. The annual Festival of Fairy Tales is hosted by the Junior League of Corpus Christi. Proceeds raised benefit education to conquer childhood obesity and child wellness.

###

Mission Statement

The Junior League of Corpus Christi, Inc. is an organization of women committed to promoting volunteerism, developing the potential of women, and improving the community through the effective action and leadership of trained volunteers. Its purpose is exclusively educational and charitable.
www.jlcc.org